

9 days

Colombian Tour

¡Welcome to Colombia!

In Bogota you'll meet the guide to review the program details and have questions or concerns.

Day 1

flight to Pereira. From Pereira our transportation will take us to our hotel in Salento village. Once settled in we travel to Cocora Valley. A hike will immerse us into the biodiversity of the valley with exotic birds, native animals, the wax palms, and stunning flora. When we return to town we'll walk the stairs to the top of (name) mountain. From the top you'll get to see views of the village, the surrounding area and the sunset.

Day 2

After breakfast we will go to a coffee tour in a farm, learn about the process of the way they cultivate and enjoy a cup of coffee, after this we will get a private driver that will direct us through a beautiful road into the hot springs of Santa Rosa de Cabal, we will enjoy of magnificent waterfalls of cold and hot water.

Day 3

Get Pereira to fly to Medellin, when in Medellin we go to Poblado neighborhoods settle in the hotel then visit the "Comuna Trece", once one of Colombia's most dangerous neighborhoods, "Comuna Trece" has been reborn and now buzzing with live performance, street vendors and amazing graffiti art. You'll learn about the neighborhood's violent past and how new projects and social investment has changed the area after that we will do a city tour visiting the more emblematic areas of Medellin, the public transportation and the impact that has in the society.

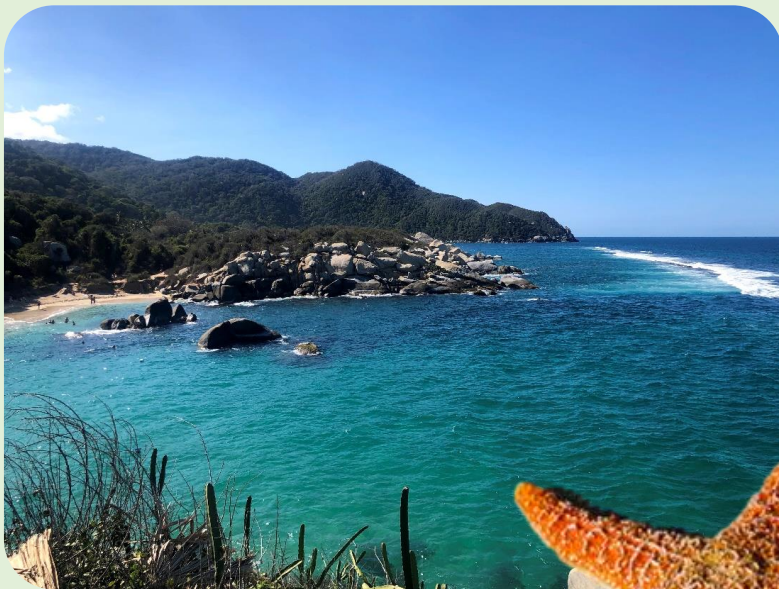

Day 4

Start the road to the beautiful Guatapé walk the 700 stairs that take us to the top of el peñón and enjoy the view then go to the city of Guatapé where the colorful houses in colonial styles the little streets and the different zocalos that decor the village (optional a boat ride in the embalse) and rest.

Day 5

Depart to Santa Marta there we will stay in the city in a colonial style building visit the house museum where Bolívar died and discover the city the more interesting parks and buildings

Day 6

Early in the morning our transportation will bring us to “Tayrona Park”, there we will hike for approximately 2 hours in the forest to arrive to the more beautiful beaches enjoy a delicious meal by the ocean have some relaxing time and return by horse or walking another 2 hours. We will return to the hotel in Santa Marta and rest.

Day 7

Depart to Cartagena stopping in the way in the mud, arrive to the “Corralito de Piedra” which has been recognized by Unesco for its colonial history. We will visit the parts of the city that have been frozen in time in the colonial era. We will visit the Castle San Felipe. Later we'll walk the “Getsemani” neighborhood to see some of the night activities

Day 8

Early departure to a beach club, we will have some time to relax and just enjoy the day by a pool and beach, we will have dinner in a very nice restaurant

Day 9

You will take with you the more amazing memories back home, after seen how much diversity Colombia offer you the charming of the people and the country itself will be something that I hope can brought you back.

Colombia

